Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Rowitch et al (Pat. No. 6,873,910) or Rowitch (US 2004/0041729).

Rowitch et al teach a method for detecting of multiple positioning signals including detecting a first positioning signal using non-coherent integration 210, based on the first positioning signal, determining the values of one or more signal detection parameters 210, and using the values of the signal detection parameters, determining a second positioning signal using coherent integration 214.

Rowitch teaches a method for detecting of multiple positioning signals including detecting a first positioning signal using non-coherent integration 200, based on the first positioning signal, determining the values of one or more signal detection parameters 202, and using the values of the signal detection parameters, determining a second positioning signal using coherent integration 206.

3. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by King et al (Pat. No. 6,295,024).

King et al teach a method for detecting of multiple positioning signals including detecting a first positioning signal using non-coherent integration (fig. 9), based on the first positioning signal, determining the values of one or more signal detection parameters (col 10, lines 31-33; col 10, lines 47-57), and using the values of the signal detection parameters, determining a second positioning signal using coherent integration (fig. 8).

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Dao L. Phan whose telephone number is (571)272-6976. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 9:00-5:30.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Tarcza Thomas can be reached on (571)272-6979. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
